

Jessie and Buster Kendrick have secured a limited number of the excellent book "Historical Southern Families" (Vol 1) by John B. Riddie of Santa Clara, California and copies are available at a near-cost price of $10.00 a copy. The address is Kendrick Book Store, 2429 Rice Blvd. Houston 5, Texas. I have purchased a copy and found it extremely interesting since it devotes many pages to our Kendrick line. I have traced a lineage from this book back 9 generations to John Kendrick who was born in 1675 in King William Co., Virginia. A brief summary is as follows: John Kendrick, his son William Kendrick, born 1704, Isle of Wright Co., Virginia, --his son James Kendrick, 1773, --his son Surrell Kendrick, 1760, --his son James Cornelius Kendrick, 1801 in Montgomery Co., Ga. --his son James Marcellus Kendrick 1848.

Here are some news items about the clans:

Helen Louise Brunette, daughter of Helen Kendrick and Louis Brunette and Ensign John Wagner, Pensacola Florida were married May 19, 1963 at Kings Methodist Church Whiteney, Texas. She was a technician at Scott & White Hospital, and he is a graduate of Texas A & M.

Carol Mason, niece of Leroy and Pat Kendrick, Tyler was married to Charles Barton June 2, 1963 in the Chapel of Rice University, Houston. They will be in Delaware this summer and then both will work towards their master's degrees at Northwestern University, Chicago.

Our efficient co-registrar, Edna Kendrick Crossman was very seriously injured in an automobile accident in Lubbock this past fall and is slowly recovering. She is at the Rehabilitation Center, Gonzalez, Texas.

Robert Kendrick, Kerrville has returned from a trip to Hawaii. Blanche Kendrick and a Waco friend, Ella Womble are planning to go to Hong Kong and other points in the Far East.

Please continue to send us these news items and your suggestions. Also please send Zuleika the names of anyone you think may not be on the mailing list. We have 106 families, but know we are missing some.

Cordially yours,
Jim Kendrick, President
